3 of 3 review helpful I will never look at a snow globe the same again By Forest Maiden Nothing is as it seems in Winterhaven especially for Sondrine Renfrew of the Other World She always knew she was different If not the magenta tipped curls she had snipped only to see grow back then most definitely because of the elemental powers she possesses Still the Cimmerian rsquo s Curio Emporium in London England By day Sondrine Renfrew works at Cimmerian rsquo s Curio Emporium her aunt rsquo s apothecary and antique shop in London 1875 By night she weaves fire water and air into both inanimate objects and living creatures When a hooded stranger offers Sondrine a snow globe in trade for medicinal herbs she accepts enchanted by the castle forest and sea encapsulated under the glass Her enchantment fades however when her deceitful aunt betroths her to one of London There are very few times that I can give a debut author a 5 star rating It takes most authors time experience heartache and hundreds of re writes to get to a solid book Then you quietly stumble across a born storyteller That s right storyteller NOT writ
